2012 NATIONAL GATHERING

2012 GUEST SPEAKER TRAV FITCH.

A distant rumble. The earth shudders. The morning stillness shattered. Like an invading army, lines of water heave forward across the sand bar. The Wavemaker breathes new life. The ocean shouts to it's inhabitants of His glory. We will stand in awe!

Every CSA mission represented. Our dream for the 2012 CSA National Gathering is that we will be together as one mission, one tribe with one hope. For all CSA leaders, young and old, the CSA national gathering is coming!

Easter Weekend, Thursday 5th to Monday 9th April 2012

Coolum Beach, Sunshine Coast, QLD. Home to fun beachies, warm water (leave your wetties at home), cafe's, shops and Julian Wilson. 15 minutes north is the beautiful national parks and famous point breaks of Noosa Heads.

Our accommodation is at Luther Heights Youth Camp within walking distance of shops and several surf beaches. Perched on the hill overlooking the beach, the dormitory style accommodation is basic, but comfortable and clean. Limited family rooms are also available:

Trav's current role in this faith community is mainly as an evangelist; not in the on-stage-preachy-guy sense but as someone who enjoys creating and cultivating spaces for robust Jesus-centred conversations in the thick of the community.

Trav spends his time in a number of different ways; sometimes playing gigs at the pub and, at other times, developing 12 Buckets -- the growing not-for-profit he and his friends started in 2010.

He loves studying ancient Hebrew, reading nerdy theology books, and is working hard to increase his hours in the ocean on his 9'1" ...with that in mind, he is particularly stoked about coming to Coolum with his family this coming Easter to talk about being the
